ARMISTICE EXPIRED.

Venezuelan Revolutionists Have Resumed Active Operations Against President Castro.

FOUGHT A LIVELY ENGAGEMENT.

Semi-Officially Announced that Blockade by the Allies Will Continue During Arbitration of Issues—Italy Expresses Friendship for America.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Dec.
29.—News has reached here from an authoritative source in Caracas that Vicente Gomez, first vice president of the republic, intends to carry out a bold strategic stroke against President Castro.

General Zoallio Vidal and five other leading supporters of General Matos, who had sought refuge here, left the island of Curacao early Saturday morning in a sail boat, which took them in the direction of Cumarebo, near Coro, on the Venezuelan coast.
The departure of these men is taken as proof that the revolt against President Castro is again active.

The Venezuelan revolutionists have resumed active hostilities against President Castro. There occurred yesterday morning a lively engagement between 1,200 revolutionists under General Riera and government forces at Canyaro, in the vicinity of Coro. Details of the engagement are lacking, but it is known here that the revolutionists had artillery. The government forces were commanded by General Refereno Castillo. General Riera retained his position. The armistice between the government and the revolutionists has just expired.

Maracaibo Enters La Guaira.

La Guaira, Dec. 29.—The Red "D" line steamer Maracaibo arrived here yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and entered the port. She landed her passengers and mails and received passengers and mails from La Guaira.
The British cruiser Charybdis passed this port Saturday, going in a westerly direction. She communicated with the British cruiser Tribune.
The Charybdis returned from the west yesterday afternoon and continued in the direction of Trinidad.

London, Dec. 29.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says it has been semi-officially announced that under special agreements the blockade of the Venezuelan coast by the allies will continue during the arbitration of the issues.

Have No Animosity.

Rome, Dec. 29.—It having been reported that Commander William H.
Reeder, of the United States training ship Hartford, said the Hartford would not come to an Italian port, fearing an unfavorable reception on account of the unpleasant incident at Venice in connection with the visit of the officers of the United States cruiser Chicago last spring. The Associated Press has been requested officially to deny the existence of any animosity towards the United States, either among the Italian people or on the part of the Italian government. This lack of animosity, it is pointed out is proved by the last Italian note on the Venezuelan matter, in which it was said that Italy had unlimited confidence in President Roosevelt. If American ships of war come to Italy, the Associated Press is requested to say they will be heartily welcomed everywhere.

Allies' Notes Transmitted.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The Venezuelan government is now in possession of the complete notes of Great Britain and Germany containing the various reservations made by those governments before the decision was reached that the issues between Venezuela and the European governments having claims against her should be referred to The Hague tribunal for arbitration. The United States having acted as an intermediary in the steps leading up to the acceptance of arbitration, now turns over to the Venezuelan government the formal work of completing the basis for a full hearing before The Hague. The notes were transmitted to the Venezuelan government through United States Minister Bowen at Caracas.

There were no new features to the situation here yesterday. Officials are hopeful that the governments interested will work harmoniously and conscientiously to reach an early and final solution of the trouble. The administration is anxious that there soon may be an amelioration of the blockade. It is certain this government will use every effort to have the blockade called off pending consideration of the questions at issue by The Hague tribunal for the double reason that its continuance is always a menace to peace and order and because of the harmful effects on American shipping to Venezuelan ports. Just what the allied governments have determined upon in that regard it is difficult to say, as Secretary Hay uniformly has refused to make public their reservations and demands as a preliminary to arbitration, feeling that such information should come from the governments themselves.

Identified as Dollie Allen.
Philadelphia, Dec. 29.—Dollie Earle, the actress who Saturday night committed suicide in her dressing room at a burlesque theater here, was yesterday identified as Dollie Allen, daughter of Mrs. T. J. Allen, of Hochester, N. Y.
